HERE FOR THE LAUGHS?

SPONSORSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

- Wrexham Comedy Festival is a successful, vibrant event which takes place at William Aston Hall (WAH) in the heart of Wrexham and the University. On its way to becoming a key date in the UK comedy festival circuit, audiences have grown by 103% year on year.
- WAH is building a strong reputation as a prime comedy venue for North Wales with sell-out performances from world class comedians, including Sarah Millican, Chris McCausland and Jimmy Carr.
- The festival, with ticket prices starting at £5, aims to bring a diverse mix of world-class comedy, including strong Welsh, international and upcoming acts - helping to raise the profile of the city and attracting new people to visit.
- Building on the success of last year's Comedy Festival, we are expecting more than 3000 visitors throughout the festival focussed around the 3 gala performances (Friday, Saturday, Sunday evenings) each with 4-5 higher profile acts.
- More than 30 comedians will perform with headliner acts Kiri Pritchard-McLean, Jen Brister, Justin Moorhouse and many more. (subject to contracts).

Wrexham Comedy Festival is produced and run by WAH and Theatr Clwyd, in association with Tŷ Pawb and runs 21 - 26 October 2025.
